

RC35 Class Rules 2021

- i. All Yachts will fit within an IRC rating band of 1.010 – 1.040.
- ii. The minimum weight for the Class will be 3,000kg (as shown on the Yachts IRC certificate)
- iii. All Yachts will be between 32ft – 38ft in length.
- iv. All yachts in the RC35 class shall meet RCD category B “Offshore” or above
- v. Yachts shall have a current IRC certificate. The Class goal is to move to Endorsed certificates.
- vi. All yachts shall send a copy of their current IRC certificate to the Class Secretary before the first race of the RC35 Championship.
- vii. All yachts shall supply owner(s); address, contact number and email as well as the same for at least 1 other nominated member of the team.
- viii. All surfaces of the hull below the water line including keel and rudder must be coated in antifouling paint at all times whilst racing in the RC35 championships, The Antifouling paint should be kept in good repair so bare patches are not allowed to develop.
- ix. All boats required to be out the water for extended periods should advise the committee.
- x. No yacht shall purchase more than 2 new race sails per year. An exception will be made for new yachts to the class. If no sails are purchased, then 50% can be rolled over to the following year.
- xi. All yachts shall carry safety equipment to ISAF Cat 4 MOD (MOD the removal of 4.26 in its entirety)
- xii. Crew allowance as per IRC certificate + 1 —except where event rules alter this. Crew aged 16≤ @ the event do not count to IRC crew numbers (max. 2 per boat).
- xiii. Yachts must be helmed by the owner, co-owner or other nominated helm. Maximum of 3 Category 3 crew members per yacht
- xiv. All yachts will fix main sail Class logos as per instructions.
- xv. All yachts will pay a £0 Class Association subscription fee per boat for 2021 season. The Class will provide Class stickers and flags for those entering the Championship.
- xvi. All yachts must still pay entry fees and marina fees to the relevant organiser etc.
- xvii. The RC35 Championships is 5 events with 1 discard.
- xviii. The RC35 Celtic Cup is cancelled for 2021.

